

RELATIONSHIP RELEASE PROCESS

This is a process activated by your own intention to release any remaining Soul contracts, cords, attachments, projections, implants, ego constructs, karmic residues or other energies still binding you to discord with another person (or people). These energies may still be holding you to distorted, discordant, wounded and old paradigm stories, learning paths and energies that are no longer serving your growth and expansion.

These energies and bindings may be preventing you and the person (or people) involved from evolving to a higher level of understanding and preventing healing, resolution and release in the interest of the highest good for all beings.

This process can only release what you are ready for, what is in your highest good and what is, at this time, in alignment with your own Soul truth. It may release cords, distortions and attachments so people can flow out of your life if that is the highest alignment for you. It can also clear distortions so people can remain in your life but creates the possibility for relationship evolution to a higher level creating more harmony, healthier boundaries, more awareness and neutrality.

The recommendation is to use this activation prayer once a day for 21 days straight, especially if it's your first time working with it, or follow your intuition as to how best to bring this activation into your life. Leave 7 days for integration then repeat for another 21 days if you feel drawn. Ongoing cycles help deepen the activation

When using activation prayers like these, speak out loud with strength and power taking your time so you feel really present and connected to each word and sentence.
